Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

You will gratify the Curiosity, as well as serve the Interests of your Jersey Customers, by inserting the Inclosed in your Paper of next Week.

EXTRACTS from the Votes of the House of Assembly of New-Jersey, respecting the Numbering of the Inhabitants of the said Province.

A Message from the GOVERNOR to the House of Representatives.

A RIGHT Knowledge of the Number of Inhabitants, Dwelling-houses, Births and Burials, of a Country, is a Matter evidently of great Importance to the public Welfare; and is peculiarly necessary and proper to those, who are Members of the Legislature. I have taken some Pains, during my Residence in this Colony, to obtain this useful Piece of Knowledge, but the most intelligent Persons I could meet with, were as ignorant, in this respect, as myself. On my mentioning this Matter to His Majesty's Council, and consulting them on the Expediency of having the Numbers taken, they advised the having a Number of blank Lists, proper for the Purpose, printed, and sent to every Sheriff, with Directions to distribute them to the several Assessors in each County, and request them to make the necessary Enquiries within their respective Districts, as pointed out at the Head of the List, and make Return thereof to the Sheriff, as soon as they conveniently could. This it was not doubted the Assessors would be so obliging as to do, as it would occasion them but little additional Trouble, the Duty of their Office already requiring them to take an Account of the several Families in their respective Districts. As yet I have received only one Return, which is from Mr. Skelton, the Assessor of Windsor, in the County of Middlesex; and, as it appears to be very accurately taken, I now lay it before your House, for your Information, and that you may have an Opportunity of judging of the Expediency and Utility of Accounts of this Nature. Whether I shall have it in my Power to make many more Communications of this Kind is, at present, very uncertain, as I am credibly informed, that some of the Assessors object to complying with the Request, which has been made to them, because it is not required of them by Law; others, because of an absurd, superstitious Notion, which has long prevailed amongst the Vulgar, that numbering the People is sinful; and will be attended with fatal Consequences to the Country; and others, because they suspect the Ministry have directed the Measure, in order to answer some particular Purpose of theirs; for which Suspicion I can assure you, Gentlemen, there is not the least Foundation, it not being even known to the Ministry, that any such Thing is in Agitation: But the Refusal of the largest Number is founded, I am told, on their Unwillingness to take any additional Trouble, where they are not to have an additional Allowance. This, however, Gentlemen, is no new Scheme. The Numbers of People have been twice before taken in this Colony, though not in so complete a Manner as is now proposed, and they have lately been taken in New-York, without any Difficulty, and none of the evil Consequences, dreaded by superstitious People, have ever ensued either to this or that Colony.

I hope this Matter will appear to you in the Light its Importance deserves, and that you will use your Influence, in your respective Counties, to promote the Completion of it, or otherwise give such Encouragement to the Design, as may ensure its Success.

Mr. SKELTON remarks, That in August 1771, Mr. James Clarke, a Native of the County of Middlesex, died in this Township, aged 80. That there is now living in the Township a Negro Woman, aged 108.

That Windsor is a small Township, being, on the North Bounds, about five Miles wide, from North to South, about fourteen Miles in Length, terminating in a Point on Monmouth Line, in the Whole about seven Miles square. The several Farms occupied contain about 29,000 Acres of Land, great Part of which has been settled since the Year 1733.

Mr. Skelton, though one of the most intelligent Men in the County, assured the Governor, that he did not imagine there were so many People, by 500, in the Township, as he found on taking their Numbers. And that about the Year 1733 there were not above 40 Farms in the Township, and now there are near 300.

It is also to be noted, that the New-Jersey College is within the Township of Windsor, in which College there are 3 Tutors, a Master of the Grammar School, 85 Students, and 45 Grammar Scholars, Total 134, not included in the foregoing List.

A Message from the GOVERNOR to the House of Representatives.

GENTLEMEN, I have received a Return from several of the Assessors of the County of Hunterdon, of the Number of Inhabitants, &c. in their respective Townships, with a Petition, requesting a Recompence for their extraordinary Trouble in taking the Lists, which I now lay before your House. As many of them were not made acquainted with my Request, until after they had been about their Townships to take the Rateables, and therefore had the Trouble of going about a second Time, and as they have executed the Business with Care and Assiduity, I cannot but recommend them, and such others, as shall hereafter appear to have acted in the same obliging and public-spirited Manner, to your House, for some Compensation, adequate to their Services.

September 15, 1772.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN.

House of Assembly, Wednesday, September 16, 1772. His Excellency's Messages of the 9th and 15th Instant, respecting the Numbering the Inhabitants, and an Allowance to the Assessors, &c. for taking the Lists, were read the second Time, and, after some Debate thereon, on the Question,

Ordered, That Mr. MEHELM, and Mr. HEWLINGS, do wait on his Excellency, and inform him, that the House have taken his Excellency's Messages of the 9th and 15th Instant, into Consideration; and, as the Time of affecting the Inhabitants by Law is passed, and there is now no Probability that a complete List can be had this Year, that the Members of this House will, in their several Counties, countenance the Taking the Lists, proposed by his Excellency, at the Time of next affecting the Inhabitants, when the House hopes the Lists will not only be taken with Accuracy, but with less Expence and Trouble, both to the Assessors and the People, and, that when the Returns are completed, that the House will take the Matter into farther Consideration.

The QUEEN of DENMARK's Account of the late REVOLUTION in DENMARK; written while her Majesty was a Prisoner in the Castle of Cronenburgh; and now first published from the original Manuscript, sent to a noble Earl.

THE Design of this Pamphlet is to exculpate the unhappy Queen from the Charges, brought against her at the Time of the Revolution in Denmark; the principal of which (according to this Account) were, 1. The Plotting against the King her Husband, in order to dispossess him of the Crown, in Concert with Counts Brandt and Struensee. 2. Infidelity to the King. The Reasonings against the Probability of the Truth of these Accusations, adduced by the Writer of this Account, are as follow:

"I shall now proceed to offer some Reasons for the Improbability of my being guilty of the Crimes laid to my Charge. To begin then with the Charge of my being concerned in a Conspiracy to depose the King; to have engaged in a Scheme of this Kind, would have been giving a Proof of as much Weakness as of Wickedness. For, even supposing that such a Design had been effected, the Consequences of it must have been, in the highest Degree, disadvantageous to me; as the Danes would certainly never have submitted to be governed by me (a Foreigner) in either of the Capacities of Queen or Regent; and in that Case, either the deposed King would have been again put in Possession of the Throne, or the Succession would have been entirely altered, by the Advancement of Prince Frederick to the Crown. Thus, which ever Event was to happen, my Ruin would be certain; but, granting that the Enterprize had succeeded, and that I had been permitted to ascend the Throne, I could not have expected to maintain an undisturbed Possession of my Seat; as the Queen Dowager would naturally, under the Pretence of reinstating the deposed King, have sought the Assistance of foreign Powers to dispossess me of my assumed Authority. France, whose Interest at this Court is, through the Power of that Party, very considerable, would gladly have lent her Aid on this Occasion; whilst England must, in Justice, have withheld all Assistance from the Usurper, though so closely allied to her: Add to this, the strong Opposition I should have met with from a considerable Party among the Natives themselves, who are closely connected with the Queen Dowager, and Prince Frederick. Thus surrounded with Difficulties, I should have been soon worked in the unequal Contest; and, in Consequence, precipitated from my airy Height, with the Loss of Power, Liberty, and (most probably) Life. But supposing that I could be blind in some Respects to the Dangers and Difficulties, attending such an Enterprize, on what Side was I to look for Assistance in the Execution of it? The Army have proved, by the Part they took in the late Revolution, that all Application to them would have been ineffectual; the greatest Part of the Nobility were in the Interest of the Queen Dowager; the common People were too much prejudiced against me, by the false and malicious Insinuations thrown out by my Enemies, for me to expect the least Assistance from that Quarter; the Joy they expressed, when my Reverse of Fortune was made known, plainly shews in what Estimation I was held by them. Never yet was a national Revolution effected (even attempted) in which there was not at least a considerable Part either of the Army or Commonalty engaged; but I am charged with having conceived the Design of bringing about such a Revolution, at a Time when, it is apparent, the far greater Part of the Nobility, and the Whole of the Army and Commonalty, were in League against me. Thus surrounded with Enemies, as powerful as they were numerous, to whom could I look for Protection from their Machinations, save to the King, my Husband? And can it possibly be imagined, that I should be so far infatuated, as to seek to deprive him of that Power, which alone could be my Defence against any Designs they might form to my Prejudice? Surely the Absurdity of this Charge can be equalled only by the Maliciousness of it.

"The next Accusation is of a still deeper Dye than the foregoing one. It was necessary to assign some Motive of apparent Weight for my embarking in an Enterprize, so replete with Dangers and Difficulties: My whole Conduct, while at the Court of Copenhagen, proves, that the Thirst of Power (though a Frailty natural to my Sex) was the Foible which, of all others, I was most exempt from: I never attempted to raise a Faction in my Favour, even when I could not but perceive, that there was a strong Party formed against me: But, placing the utmost Confidence in my own Innocence, and the Favour of the King, my Husband, I heard, without Apprehension, the Rumours of the secret Cabals, in which they had been for some Time engaged. My Foes were therefore obliged to fix on some other Motive, than merely that of a Wish to encrease my Power, for my attempting to depose the King; and accordingly suggested, that I had engaged in a criminal Inter-course with Count Struensee; consequently, that it had become necessary, to the Safety both of the Count and myself, to deprive the King of that Power, which we were certain would be exercised with the utmost Severity over us, in case the Criminality of our Conduct should at any Time come to Light. They hinted, that (as a strong Presumption of my Guilt) a Resemblance of the said Count, might be plainly traced in the Features of the Infant, my Daughter. They grounded this Accusation upon a (pretended) Familiarity between me and the Count, which (said they) was totally inconsistent with that Dignity, which I ought to have maintained in all my Behaviour, as Consort of the King. It is averred, that the unhappy Count confessed himself to have been guilty of such criminal Connection with me, in the Course of his Examination before the Court of Enquiry. I scarcely can conceive it possible, that the Count could thus cast a Stain upon my Reputation, and his own Honour, by an Accusation so totally devoid of Truth. But even admitting that he did make this Confession, as it was avowedly forced from him by the Tortures of the Rack, such Evidence alone, without any corroborating Circumstances, ought not to have been admitted as Cause sufficient for my Conviction. But my Judges were predetermined to condemn me, though it should be at the Expence of Law, Justice, and Reason. This Proceeding surprises me the less, when I consider the Influence under which they acted; for I am fully convinced, that the Nomination of the Members of the above Court, and also certain Regulations, according to which they were to proceed, were made by the self-same Authority with that, by which the King was compelled to sign the Order for my Arrest. It is observable, that there is not the least Suggestion thrown out against the Legitimacy of the Prince, my Son. A pretended too great Familiarity between the Count and me was the Foundation, on which my Enemies grounded the Charge against me; and this Familiarity, they alleged, was visible to the whole Court. If this had really been the Case, whence happens it, that the King should be so long ignorant of such a material Circumstance? It is plain he was an entire Stranger to it, at the very Time of my Arrest, otherwise he would never have hesitated to sign the Order for that Purpose. And besides, it must have been a Proof of the highest Degree of Infatuation in me, to have behaved with such Want of Circumspection in a Court, where I well knew, that a great Part of the Persons who appeared before me, were in the Capacity of Spies upon my Actions."

L O N D O N.

August 11. On Monday last arrived at Spithead, his Majesty's bark Endeavour, from the Falkland Islands. She left England, Dec. 5, 1771, which is the quickest passage ever known.

Extract of a Letter from Compeigne, July 25.

"The Sieur de Kerguelen, Lieutenant in the navy, who was sent out to make discoveries of the terra australis, is lately returned, and the following particulars of the success of his voyage are published here:

"After three weeks navigation from the island of Bourbon, the Sieur de Kerguelen discovered, in 47 degrees of south latitude, westward of that island, an unknown country, which he has named South France. He coasted along an extent of fifty leagues, and according to the report of some of his people, whom he sent ashore, the country is very fine, and appears to be extremely fruitful. It is peopled by a vast number of inhabitants of a blackish complexion; there are forests, and meadows covered with numberless herds of cattle."

August 20. It is said, that the opinions of the Crown Lawyers have been taken, on the legality of the Court of Directors sending a commission with dictatorial powers to the East; and they have reported upon the case, "That the government of the settlements in Asia are by charter vested in a Governor and Council, which mode of government has been recognised by various acts of Parliament, that, therefore, any change in that form, by a commission from the company, is illegal, and a sufficient cause for the forfeiture of the charter."

August 27. A considerable number of the Merchants, trading to the British Colonies, having prepared the following address to the Earl of Hillsborough, a Committee from them waited on, and presented it to, his Lordship on Tuesday.

To the Right Hon. the Earl of Hillsborough.

"My Lord,

"The resignation of so important an employment, as your Lordship lately filled with such distinguished abilities, though a circumstance extremely interesting to the nation at large, affects the whole body of Merchants, connected with the commerce of the British colonies, in a very particular manner, and calls upon them to bear a public testimony to your character.

"During your Lordship's continuance in office, the Merchants were received with the utmost respect at your Board, and experienced every attention, that could justly engage their esteem; they found the mutual prosperity of the Mother Country, and her dependencies, the unalterable object of your attention, and even in any speculative points, where the Minister differed from their opinion, they always retired highly charmed with the politeness of the Man.

"The Merchants connected with the commerce of the Colonies, my Lord, do not feel more gratitude for the distinction with which they were treated, while you held the American Secretaryship of State, than admiration for the motives, which induced you to resign it.

"They do not mean, my Lord, to enter at all into the political rectitude of these motives, the liberality of them is sufficient for their purpose, and it gives them unspeakable satisfaction, that their gracious Sovereign himself has honoured them with an exalted proof of his royal approbation.

"The Gentlemen, my Lord, who now address your Lordship, would feel your loss with an aggravated sensibility, if the well-known integrity of your successor did not furnish them with ample consolation. In that integrity they repose great confidence, and are persuaded, that your Lordship's example will lead every Board, which the Merchants have occasion to attend, to merit a like encomium from so considerable a part of the community."

To which his Lordship was pleased to give the following answer:

"Gentlemen,

"I am truly sensible of this very obliging and honourable mark of your attention to me in my present situation.

"Your approbation of my poor endeavours to promote the King's service, and the joint interests of this kingdom and her colonies, administers consolation to me at a time, when I have found myself under the disagreeable necessity of relinquishing the service of a most gracious Master, for whom I entertain the most dutiful and respectful affection, of giving up my share in administration, whose principles and measures I in general approve, and in quitting an office which, in some degree, constituted me agent for the Merchants of Great-Britain, and was in many respects most pleasing and desirable to me.

"I am happy on your account, as well as that of the public, in the integrity and ability of my successor, whose amiable character and disposition cannot fail to give universal satisfaction."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, August 21.

"By advices from Warsaw we are informed, that M. de Saldern, Ambassador from Russia to the King and the Republic of Poland, is upon the point of quitting that city, on his return to Petersburg. It is pretended that his short stay at Warsaw is occasioned by his haughty behaviour, which has rendered him odious to the Poles.

"The above letters add, that no particular account has been yet received at Warsaw, relative to the negotiations of peace carrying on at the congress near Fokkany, but that all the advices from thence still give the greatest hopes of a successful issue to those negotiations; and the more so, as the Ottoman Ministers Plenipotentiary continue to testify a great and sincere desire for the re-establishment of peace, and that an happy accommodation between the two belligerent powers may put an end to the war.

"Although the Polish Prince Czartorsky has been at the Hague some days, we do not learn that he has yet taken the least step towards obtaining an interview with the States General, on the affairs of Poland."

August 31. One Nicholas Goldsmith, a cowherd, in Saxe Gotha, was lately broke upon the wheel there, for the murder of children, whom he had killed and eaten. There was a cave near his cottage, in which he cooked and feasted on the Flesh of the unhappy victims; and before he was discovered, he had made away with no less than fifteen, which he confessed at the place of execution. Another herdsmen traced him to his cave, and caught him in the fact, and gave information against him to a Magistrate, by which his inhuman cruelty was detected.

CHARLES-TOWN (in South-Carolina) October 8.

Many and great Losses are sustained in this Province, in Consequence of the late Failures in Europe; but happily the Sufferers are such as were most able to bear them.

A letter from Placcen, in the Voightland (in Germany) dated the 14th of June last, represents that Country in such extreme Distress, that the Inhabitants could not procure Provisions under the following enormous Prices, viz. Rye, at Twelve Dollars per Bushel; Barley, at Eight; and Oats, at Four.

Notwithstanding the Distance (Seventy-Five Miles) of the Town of Beaufort, Port-Royal, from this, which has been the established Seat of Government from the first Settlement thereof; whence none of the Public Offices can be removed; and where all the Public Records are lodged; and notwithstanding also, the Risk which every Man is exposed to, who leaves Charles-Town to go into the Country at this Season of the Year, of losing his Health; all our late elected Representatives are gone, either by Sea, Inland, or over Land, to attend the Service of their Country, agreeable to His Excellency the Governor's Will and Pleasure, at Beaufort aforesaid; this being the Day on which the Writs are made returnable at the Court-House there.—No Measure of any Governor was ever more freely and generally condemned; but we ought not to doubt that His Excellency had most weighty Reasons for adopting it.

October 12. On Wednesday last His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Governor in Chief, &c. of this Province, arrived at Beaufort about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, under a Discharge of the Cannon on the Bay-street. The next Day the Cannon at Lyttleton's Bastion saluted His Excellency, and the Gentlemen of the Town paid their Compliments.

On Friday the principal Inhabitants of Beaufort waited on his Excellency with a Congratulatory Address, which was presented by John Barnwell, jun. Esq; one of their Representatives in Assembly. The SPEECH of his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of South-Carolina, Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. delivered at the Opening of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the said Province, at Beaufort, Port-Royal, on Saturday, the 10th of October, 1772.

Honourable Gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,
MY constant Attention to preserve the Laws of this Province from Violation, was the only Cause of my calling the General Assembly at this Time. My Knowledge of the Situation of Affairs in this Country, and of her real Interests, and my ardent Wishes to promote them, induced me to summon this General Assembly to meet in this Town. I have exercised, and shall continue to exercise, the Royal Prerogative, in such a Manner, as, in my Opinion, may promote His Majesty's Service, and the general Advantage of the People, over whom I have the Honour to preside: And while I am cautious, in the most extreme Degree, that I do not violate the Laws, I shall be perfectly satisfied with my Conduct, so long as I exercise such Powers only; as are constitutional.—Such I shall always exercise with the best Intentions, and with a corresponding Firmness.

A long Space of Time having elapsed, since the Inhabitants of this Province have received Benefit from the Deliberations of a Commons House of Assembly, many salutary Laws have expired, and others are near expiring, which ought to be revived and continued; the People have not acquired such new Laws, as recent Circumstances have rendered necessary; and the public Creditors, for Years past, are yet unpaid their just Demands. I with the Commons House of Assembly may remember, that a Delay of Justice is a Denial of Justice.

Being sensible of the only Cause of the late public Diffentions, and of the Inconveniences and Distress, with which this Province is loaded, I cannot but most sincerely lament the distressed Situation of our public Affairs: And, as there is not any Instance of a lawful House of Commons having ever appropriated, and caused Money to be issued for public Services, of their sole Authority, and against the Consent of the other Branches of the Legislature, or even having at any Time claimed such a Power; so, upon the Principles of our Constitution, of Law, and of Reason, it cannot be allowed, that any Commons House of Assembly of this Province can, or ought to have any such Power.

Careful as I am, not to invade the constitutional Rights of a Commons House of Assembly, it is my indispensable Duty, to endeavour to preserve, to each Branch of the Legislature, its native Powers of Legislation; and I do earnestly wish, that the weighty Affairs of this Province may be deliberated upon, and transacted, with that truly patriotic Spirit, which can, with Magnanimity, condemn and abandon any Measure, that is an Alien to, incompatible with, and destructive of, the Rights and Powers of that Mode of Legislation, from which our own is modelled, and from which alone the People of this Province derive all their Liberties, as English Subjects, and all those Rights, Privileges, and Powers of Legislation, which can be legally exercised by their Representatives in General Assembly.

By as much as you all prize and value the Rights of English Subjects—by so much let it be your Care to demonstrate, by Acts, which are of much more Consequence than Words, a due Veneration of that Form and Spirit of Government, which has granted, and now regulates and preserves, those invaluable Privileges to the Inhabitants of this Province. As it is your Interest to preserve the English Spirit of Government, so it is your Interest to preserve to each Branch of the Legislature, such Powers as are peculiar or common to each. In this Case, the safest Means to preserve the Constitution, is to maintain each particular Part of it inviolate. Innovations are dangerous—they are, in general, sure to create Contentions; which, unhappily for Mankind, too often make quick Progress to Anarchy. Wherefore, let me recommend to you, in the strongest Terms, that you be careful to endeavour to annihilate any Innovation, which, by violating constitutional Privileges of Legislation, thereby evidently tends to destroy that happy Poise of Power, which is the peculiar Characteristick and Palladium of Legislature, founded upon, and assimilated, as nearly as may be, to Principles of British Legislation; the constitutional Spirit of which is so admirably tempered and compounded, that nothing can endanger or hurt it, but Attempts and Innovations calculated to destroy the Equilibrium of Power between one Branch of the Legislature and the rest.

The Commons House of Assembly claiming to issue Monies for public Services, of their sole Authority, has so alarming a Tendency, that it cannot be too anxiously guarded against. Such a Measure is evidently capable of destroying and overturning every fundamental Principle of that Constitution of Government, which is the Envy of admiring Nations: To persist in such an unconstitutional Claim, would be in Effect to declare a Design to acquire a Power, which is inconsistent with the English Constitution; a Measure which, in the natural Consequences of Things, is pregnant with the most formidable and certain Dangers to the true Interests of the People of this Province; but, to annihilate an unconstitutional Claim, is most virtuous and most honourable. Such a Proceeding is the most infallible Criterion of a true Patriot, and a wise Senator. By such a Conduct you will, in the most laudable Manner, discharge your Duty to your King, to your Country, and to yourselves. I am willing to hope for such a distinguishing Proof of true Patriotism from this Commons House of Assembly; such a Conduct will, of Course, render the Exercise of unusually exercised Prerogatives unnecessary, which, although to a few Persons, they may be displeasing Remedies, to operate against the Orders of the State, are not therefore the less legal or inadequate to effect their ultimate End, and the Good of the People.

At this, my first Meeting with this General Assembly, I chuse to deliver my Sentiments thus fully and candidly, upon a Point of so high Consequence, as the Preservation of our Legislative Powers in their native Force. With the best Intentions for the public Service, I do recommend this most serious Subject to your most attentive Consideration. I shall, at all Times, give every Encouragement in my Power, to engage you to proceed to the Consideration of public Affairs, with that Temper, Candour, and Benevolence, which must naturally prevail in public Deliberations, when the public Good is truly understood, and is really meant to be promoted: And as I have now some Reason to think, that the speedy Sitting of the General Assembly in CHARLES-TOWN may induce such Deliberations, and I pledge myself to you, that at all Times, I shall exercise my Authority in such a Manner, as I may think will have a Tendency to induce such Deliberations as may be of public Benefit, I do prorogue this General Assembly to the Twenty-second Day of this instant October, to be then held at the usual Place in CHARLES-TOWN; and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU.

N E W - Y O R K, November 2.

Wednesday Night last the Brig Diana, Capt. Van Horne, arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, in 3 Weeks, who, on the 4th of September, off Cape Anthony, Lat. 20: 10, met with a very violent Gale of Wind, the Severity of which continued about four Hours, veering all round the Compass, in which he lost his Main-top-sail, split his Fore-sail, lost many Articles off his Decks, and expected every Minute to have lost both his Masts; and in which Gale he parted with the Brig Dolphin, Capt. Goddard, from the Bay for the Straights. Capt. Van Horne spoke with the following Vessels, viz. Sept. 10, Lat. 23: 30, with a Spanish Snow, from the Havana for La Vera Cruz, who had also received considerable Damage in the above Gale; the 14th, Lat. 24, with Capt. Prince, in a Brig, from the Bay for Philadelphia, 33 Days out, who informed him, that in Lat. 23, he had spoke with the Carysfort Frigate, from Jamaica for Penicola, who had lost her Main and Mizzen-masts, Boat, and every Thing off her Decks; the 19th, in Lat. 23: 13, with the Ship Royal Captain, Capt. Key, from the Mulquito Shore for London, who told him, that the Garland Man of War had failed from that Place, for Jamaica, a few Days before him, and that he had seen, on his Passage, the Wreck of a large Vessel, but could learn no further Particulars. Oct. 12, Lat. 30: 30, Long. 77: 47, with a Sloop, from Jamaica for North-Carolina, the Capt. of which acquainted him, that on the 4th of September, Capt. Stoddard, in a Brig, belonging to Rhode-Island, from Jamaica for Philadelphia, was cast away near Cape Anthony, but the Crew were saved, and taken off by some Vessel, that he had met with a few Days before; the 17th, Lat. 33: 30, Long. 77: 28, with the Snow James and Mary, Capt. Waton, from Belfast for South-Carolina, 7 Weeks and 3 Days out; the 19th, Lat. 34, Long. 76: 20, with the Schooner Greyhound, Capt. Judah, from Hispaniola for Rhode-Island, 19 Days out, who, on the Passage, had taken up a Boat, with the Crew of a Ship, from Port au Prince for Bourdeaux, that, on the 18th of September, had been struck with Lightning, and sunk immediately.

The Brig Tryon, Captain Saunders, arrived here last Monday, after a tedious Passage from Jamaica, having failed from thence the 26th of August, and on the 4th of September, had the Misfortune to lose his Maits in the Bite of Leoganne, but was so near the Land, that he luckily recovered most of his Rigging, &c. the next Day, which was drove ashore.

Between Twelve and One o'Clock last Friday Noon, they had a most surprising Gust of Wind at Newark, in New-Jersey, attended with a very heavy Rain, by which the Inhabitants of that Place have lost more than 500 Apple Trees, besides many of their Buildings have suffered much, particularly the Dwelling-houses of Isaac Ogden, Esq; Mr. Timothy Johnston, Mr. Samuel and Mr. Elias Baldwin. The Gust happened on the Change of the Wind, and its Width was supposed not to be more than 30 Rods.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Gardiner, in 25 Days from St. Thomas's, and informs, that the late Hurricane had done as much Damage at that Island, as at St. Christophers.

Jonathan Trumbull, Esq; Governor of the Colony of Connecticut, has issued a Proclamation, dated the 22d ult. offering a Reward of Thirty Pounds lawful, for apprehending a certain James Shields, or Shields, who it is supposed murdered one James Johnson, a transient Man, whose Body was found in a Grove of Wood, near Saybrook Ferry, in the County of New-London: The said Shields is of a middling Stature, thick set, of a dark Complexion, about 30 Years old, lively and active; had on a large blue Vest, and failed out of New-Haven about two Years since.

We have heard the following further Circumstances, relating to the above Murder: That the two Men, both travelling on Foot to the Westward, happened, about 13 Days ago, to meet upon the Road, a little to the Eastward of Saybrook Ferry, that they seemed to be Friends and Acquaintance, that as they crossed the Ferry, Shields said to Johnson, "The last Time we travelled together, you had no Money, and I bore your Expenses; and now you have Money and I none, you may bear mine;" that after crossing the Ferry they called at a Tavern together, and had a Dram--- That some Time after, they were seen sitting down by the Side of the Road, eating Bread and Cheese together, and not far from that Place the Murder was committed; a Person passing the Road, observed a Cloth lying at a Distance, under which he found the Body of Johnson, stabbed in several Places about the Breast, and disfigured in the Face. The Cloaths and all his Effects were taken away, a Pair of Shoes were left, and known by the Ferry-men to be the same Shields had on. As soon as the Magistrates got Notice, a Messenger was sent towards New-York, in Pursuit of the supposed Murderer, and heard of him all the Way on the Road, till he entered this Government, since which he has not been heard of.

The following were the Goods taken away from Johnson, a Felt Hat, a checked Shirt, Buckskin Breeches, a Button-hole on each Side standing back of the usual Place of buttoning; a new Pair of turned Pumps, a Pair of grey ribbed Stockings, Pinchbeck open worked Shoe Buckles, a Snuff coloured Broadcloth Vest, the Back of a different Colour.

PHILADELPHIA, November 4.

On Tuesday, the 20th ult. the Assembly of the Lower Counties on Delaware, met at New-Castle, and unanimously chose THOMAS M'KEAN, Esq; Speaker, and DAVID THOMPSON, Esq; Clerk to the House.---And on Saturday following the House adjourned to the 29th Day of March next.

MARRIED. Last Sunday Evening, in this City, DANIEL HUGER, Esq; to Miss ELLIOTT, both of South-Carolina. By Captain Hanse, from Jamaica, we learn, that the late Hurricane did not reach that Island; that they had blustering Weather there for some Days, but he did not hear of any Damage done thereby; that the Brig Sally, Captain Hunter, from this Port, arrived there dismasted, and in a shattered Condition, having been laid on his Beam Ends in the Hurricane, and his Cargo much damaged; and that Captain Steward, in a Brig, from Virginia, also arrived there, having lost his Maits, Bowprit and Boats. On the 9th ult. in Lat. 21: 56, Long. 73: 49, he spoke with Captain Hervey, in a Snow, belonging to this Port, bound from Luca for Liverpool, out 15 Days; and on the 21st, in Lat. 31: 30, Long. 75: 30, he spoke a Ship, Captain Allen, from Africa for South-Carolina.

Monday last the Snow Live-Oak, Captain Moore, arrived here from Madeira, but last from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina; on the 19th of September, in Lat. 27: 30, Long. 60: 29, he met with a very hard Gale of Wind, that continued for 36 Hours, in which he shifted his Cargo, and received considerable Damage in his Sails; on the 26th, in Lat. 28: 59, Long. 70: 12, he spoke a Brig, Captain Lockhart, from Madeira for St. Augustine, out 29 Days, who had his Sails very much shattered in the above Gale; on the 26th of last Month, just on the Edge of Soundings, spoke a Sloop, Captain Brown, from Virginia for Antigua, out one Day; and at Night spoke another Sloop, Captain Campbell, from Virginia for Barbados; 29th, off Cape-Charles, spoke a Ship, from Tobago for Virginia; and on Friday last, about 7 or 8 Leagues E. by S. from our Capes, he saw the Brig Charles-Town Packet, Captain Wright, from this Port for South-Carolina.

By Captain Stewart, from Hispaniola, we learn, that Captain Cason, in a Brig, from this Port, arrived there the 25th of September, having lost his Foremast, Bowprit, Boats, Caboufe, and Quarter-rails; also had two Negroes washed overboard and drowned; and that the Snow Stirling, Captain Thompson, and the Sloop Peggy, Captain Bingley, both from this Place, are arrived safe at the Mole.

Captain Higge, from Jamaica, on the 30th ult. in Lat. 37, Long. 74, spoke a Sloop, from St. Christophers for New-York, 12 Days out, all well, but could not learn the Master's Name.

Captain Alibone, from Dominica, on the 12th ult. in Lat. 24, Long. 66, spoke a Sloop, Captain Casey, from the Island of St. Thomas for New-York, out 4 Days; and on the 21st, in Lat. 34: 44, Long. 74, he spoke a Snow, Captain Morgan, from South-Carolina for Bristol, out 5 Days, all well.

Captain Forster, from Hispaniola, on the 6th ult. in Lat. 27: 40, Long. 71: 56, spoke a Schooner, Captain Hewlings, from Boston for Providence, out 19 Days, all well.

Since our last the Ship General Wolfe, Captain Hunter, arrived here, after a very long Passage, from Londonderry.

We are informed, that about the 15th ult. came ashore at Matompkin, about 100 Miles to the Southward of Cape-Henlopen, a large Sloop, with a Brimstone Bottom, supposed to be a Whaling Sloop from New-England: She appeared to have been some Time overlet, and her Maits and Rigging were all gone. She went to Pieces on the Breakers, and sundry Things drifted ashore from her, among which were several Barrels of Oil, and Water-casks, all marked R. C. with small Marking-irons, a Number of Buckets used for Oil, some small Articles of Cloathing, sundry Chests, broke to Pieces, and the Body of a Man in Seaman's Dress, which was taken up and buried. More Particulars could not be learnt, as she went ashore on the Breakers on Drum Shoal, and the Sea ran so high, as to make boarding her impracticable.

Arrived at Jamaica. Captain McCulloch, from Philadelphia; Thurston, Hawkins, and Armistead, from North-Carolina; Zuille, Stewart, and Brodie, from Virginia; Kent, from Boston; Mumford, from New-London; Ingersol, from Salem, and Captain Hilton, from New-England.

At the MAYOR'S Court, held in this City last Week, John Underwood, for Counterfeiting and passing Counterfeit Money of this Province, was ordered to be whipt, stand in the Pillory, and have both his Ears cut off, and nailed to the Post; three others were ordered to be whipt, and stand in the Pillory, for divers Felonies, and five more to receive the Discipline of the Post, which was put in Execution on Saturday last.

VIRGINIA, July 15, 1772.

THE subscribers hereby give notice, that they have to dispose of TWO TRACTS of LAND, lying nearly contiguous, in the county of Culpepper, on Stanton river, containing about 3200 acres; part whereof is level, and part mountainous; and a considerable part is as rich as any to be found among the Great Mountains. On one of the said tracts of land there is a rich mine of iron ore, which, in the opinion of good judges, has an uncommon advantage in its situation, on account of those essential articles wood and water, and almost every other necessary for erecting and supporting iron works.

On the other tract of land there is a small though valuable Grift-mill, to which the water is conveyed from the river by a canal. The said Mill has lately been rebuilt, and is kept in repair with very little trouble or expense, being quite out of danger from any freshes. There is also a new dwelling-house, 32 feet by 18, and sundry other houses.

There are plantations on each tract, suitable for either farming or planting, and good apple-orchards on both. There is a good wagon road from the said land to Frederickburg and Falmouth, the nearest trading towns on Rappahannock river, being about 65 miles. Any persons inclining to purchase are desired to apply to the subscribers, in Spotsylvania county, who will shew them the land, and make known the terms, which will be reasonable; they live within 25 miles of Frederickburg, where directions may be had of Mr. James Maury, Merchant, or Mr. Benjamin Johnson.

Any person wanting to view the land, may be shewn it, by Mr. William Ede, living near the premises, and for further particulars, enquire of the subscriber, living about two miles from Nottingham Forge, and six miles from Joppa.
